

Parent-School Collaboration Study

This study is for parents of students with disabilities

Parent-School Collaboration is necessary to ensure students with disabilities forge academic progress and lead independent lives.

This study offers parents of students with disabilities the opportunity to share their experiences in working with the schools.

Parents will complete a survey about: themselves, their children, and their relationship with the school. To participate in the survey, please go to the following website:

<http://tinyurl.com/2ednxtk>

VANDERBILT KENNEDY CENTER

Email Meghan.m.burke@vanderbilt.edu or call (615) 585-1420